Ro-Na Restoration Project

The Ro-Na Theater, built in the 1940's in an art deco style, featuring glass block columns and neon lighting. It served as a motion picture theater for 30 years.

Conceptual drawing of the new Ro-Na Art Complex comes complete with theater seating, including balcony, motion picture screenings, concession area, and meeting rooms. The new facility will help enhance the current Downtown Revitalization Project.

Restore the Ro-Na

The Ro-Na Restoration Project Steering Committee is a volunteer committee dedicated to restoring the historical Ro-Na Theater. This project will restore quality art and entertainment to the residents of the City of Ironton and it's surrounding communities. The multi million dollar campaign will be executed in three phases.

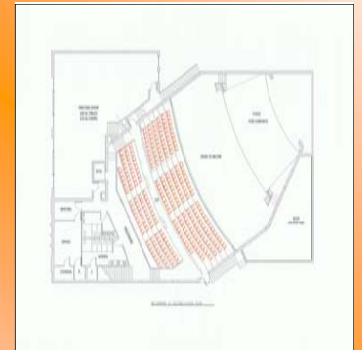

- Phase I: Roof Restoration
- Phase II: Fascade & Interior Restoration
- Phase III: Accessories
